Holme Valley Parish Council

2008 06 Public Question Time

One member of the public in attendance at the meeting asked what information the Parish Council had on the possible closure of Post Offices across the Holme Valley. Members advised the elector that the Post Office would be announcing proposed closures early in August, with a period for public consultation. The Parish Council would post details on its website as soon as they were available, to alert people to Post Office proposals and details of the consultation period.
